

Dear Families,

Thank you for choosing San Tan Montessori. Please understand us as the beginning school community for your child. The focus is on the child and on the creative problem-solving practices that will help us provide a safe, vibrant, and authentic educational environment for your child's intellectual, social, and physical development. Please visit the following page carefully as they will help guide you successfully in the partnership we have established to create a delightful learning experience for your child's life.

Enclosed you'll find:
